

University of California Cooperative Extension

Succession Planning Workshop

Transitioning strategies for farmers and ranchers

For more information and to please RSVP by April 10th: Carissa Rivers, Livestock and Natural Resources Advisor

UCCE – Siskiyou County (530) 842-2711 ★ ckrivers@ucanr.edu
<http://ucanr.edu/sites/Livestock>

No matter where you are in the planning process

Engage All Family Members in transitioning the Ranch/Farm successfully. This is an important topic not only at home, but for the future of agriculture as a whole. This workshop will focus on simplifying the succession process by giving you tools to help guide you through your individual plan.

When: April 17th

Time: 10:00-4:00 lunch provided

Location: IREC Multipurpose Building
2816 Havlina Rd.

Tulelake, CA 96134

$10/person

Tools that will be presented

- Strategies and timing of transitioning the ranch
 - Ranch Continuation
 - Fair and Equal
 - Real life examples
- 401(k) strategies for ranchers
- Management and family culture
- Cash Flow, Savings and Investment Strategies for Ranchers
 - Liquidity Concerns
 - Tax Efficiencies
- Risk Protection Strategies for Ranchers
- Incorporating Leadership

*This workshop will be held at the brand new Intermountain Research and Extension Center Building at Tulelake!

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources
Research and Extension Center System

