

"OVER THE HILL" LIVESTOCK SHOWMANSHIP

As a parent, grandparent, leader or a fair patron watching a Jr. Exhibitor show their animal in the show-ring, have you ever put yourself in their shoes and wondered about the thrill of the moment that you could experience being an exhibitor competing against others your age? If so, this competition is for you!

The winner from each "Over the Hill" Showmanship class will advance to the finals and compete in the "Over the Hill" Master Showmanship class on Saturday afternoon during the Jr. Master Showmanship classes.

Entry fees are $20 per competitor per showmanship class. To be eligible for the competition, you must be 22 years or older. You may enter in more than one specie showmanship class. Entry forms are due prior to each showmanship class. The winner of each specie showmanship class will receive donated awards. The winner of the Master

Showmanship class will receive 50% of all the "Over the Hill Showmanship Classes" paid entry fees.

If you are interested in becoming a sponsor/award donor please call the fair office at (530) 667-5312.

The "Over the Hill" showmanship classes will take place each day of the fair. The schedule will be as follows:

Friday, September 7th- Sheep "Over the Hill" Showmanship following Sheep Jr. Showmanship

Friday, September 7th - Beef "Over the Hill" Showmanship following Beef Jr. Showmanship

Saturday, September 8th - Goat "Over the Hill" Showmanship following Goat Jr. Showmanship

Saturday, September 8th - Swine "Over the Hill" Showmanship following Swine Jr. Showmanship.
